Passports and Visas

Citizens arriving from the EU countries, are exempted from visa requirements. As a student coming from one of these countries, you can enter the Romanian territory only with a simple customs stamp and you can reside here for up to 90 days. After this period, your residence is to be extended by the Romanian Ministry of Internal Affairs, for periods which shall not exceed one year.

Citizens arriving from all the other countries are obliged to apply for study visas in due time, at a Romanian diplomatic mission or consular office from their native countries. In order to get the necessary papers for visa extensions, you should contact the International Relations Office of TUCEB.

Housing

Erasmus students can be housed in hall of residence of TUCEB or in private accommodation, with the assistance of the International Relations Office. Meals can be served at the University cafeteria.
